

Add punctuation to the following sentences

1. it was a cold day even though the sun was shining
2. some people seem to like hurting others whilst some do not
3. the soldiers dug their trenches on the hill
4. although it was a quiet night my mind was racing through thoughts of the day's events
5. eventually the noise stopped and what had been a drumming pounding my head fell to silence
6. through the ages human-kind has striven to explore the next valley hill or ocean
7. nervously the seal entered the water for the first time in its life
8. what did you want asked the butcher
9. the knight packed his dinner his sword and his shield onto the cart and set off on his long and what was to prove arduous journey
10. claire emailed her friend julie and asked her to bring some milk