

Find the difference between the two numbers in the black circles and write that down in the blue circle.

Add up the blue and black circles that are connected with the red lines and write that down in the red circle.

Add the red and black circles that are connected by the green lines and write that down in the green circle.

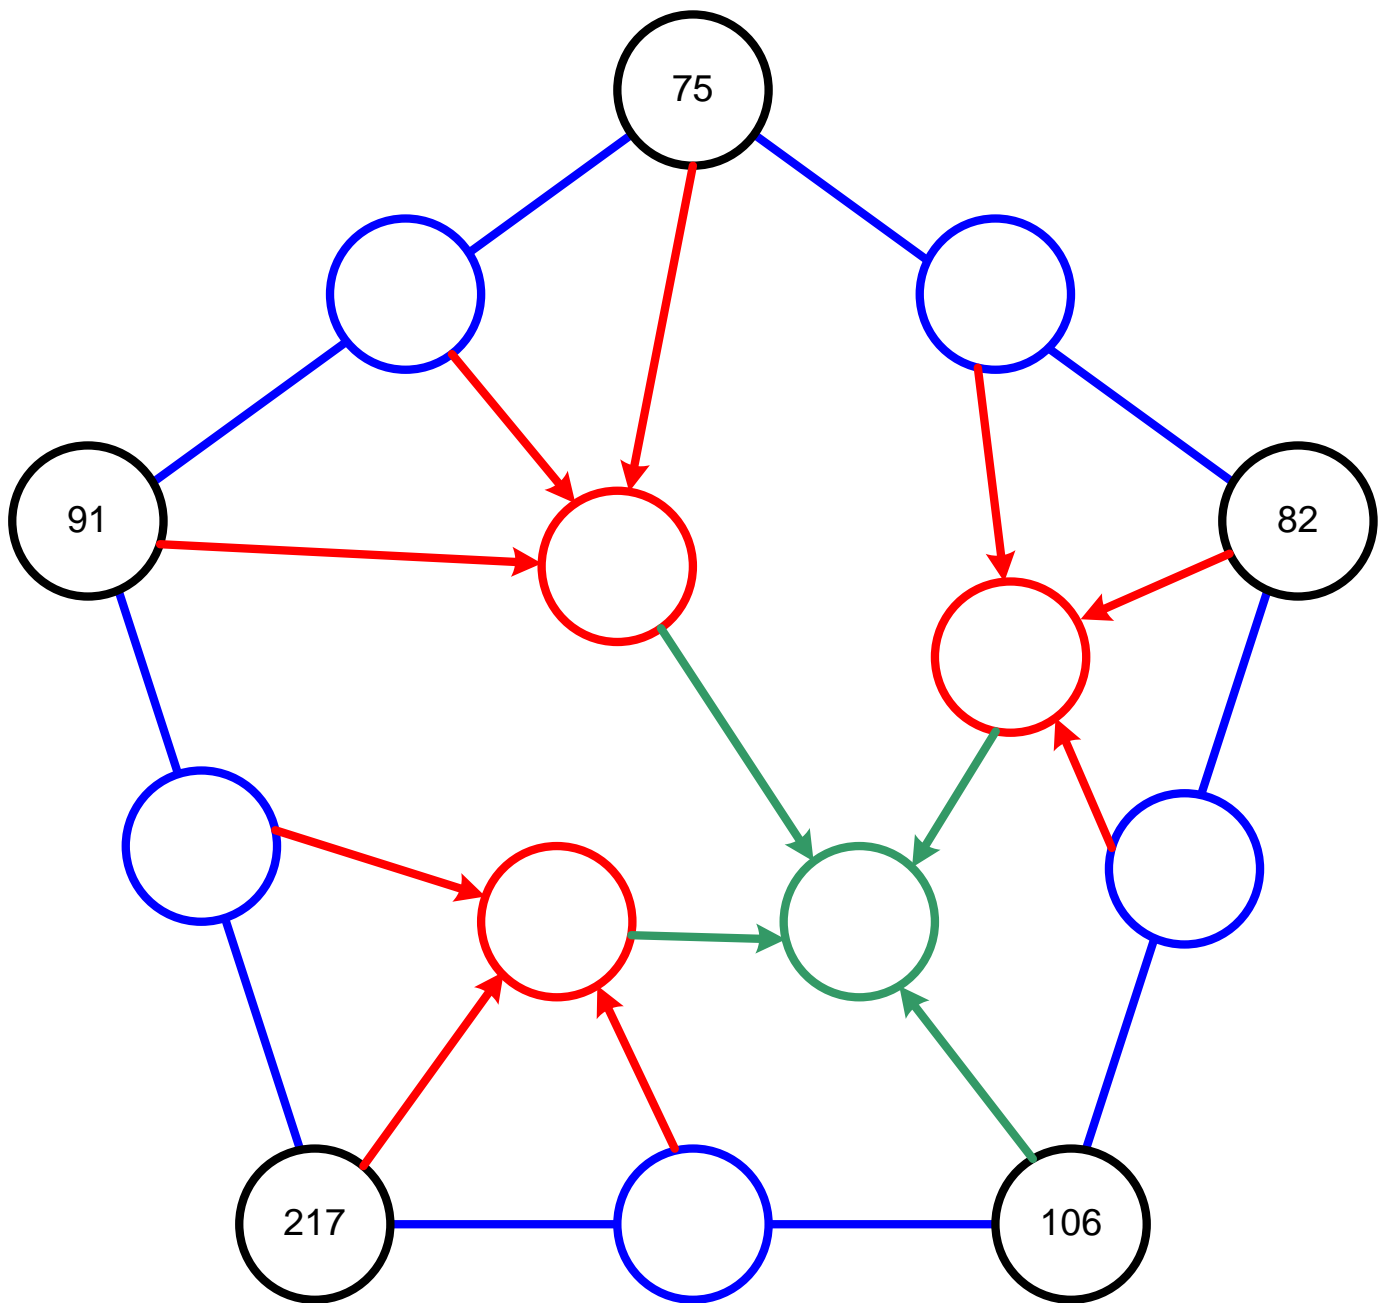

Find the difference between the two numbers in the black circles and write that down in the blue circle.

Add up the blue and black circles that are connected with the red lines and write that down in the red circle.

Add the red and black circles that are connected by the green lines and write that down in the green circle.

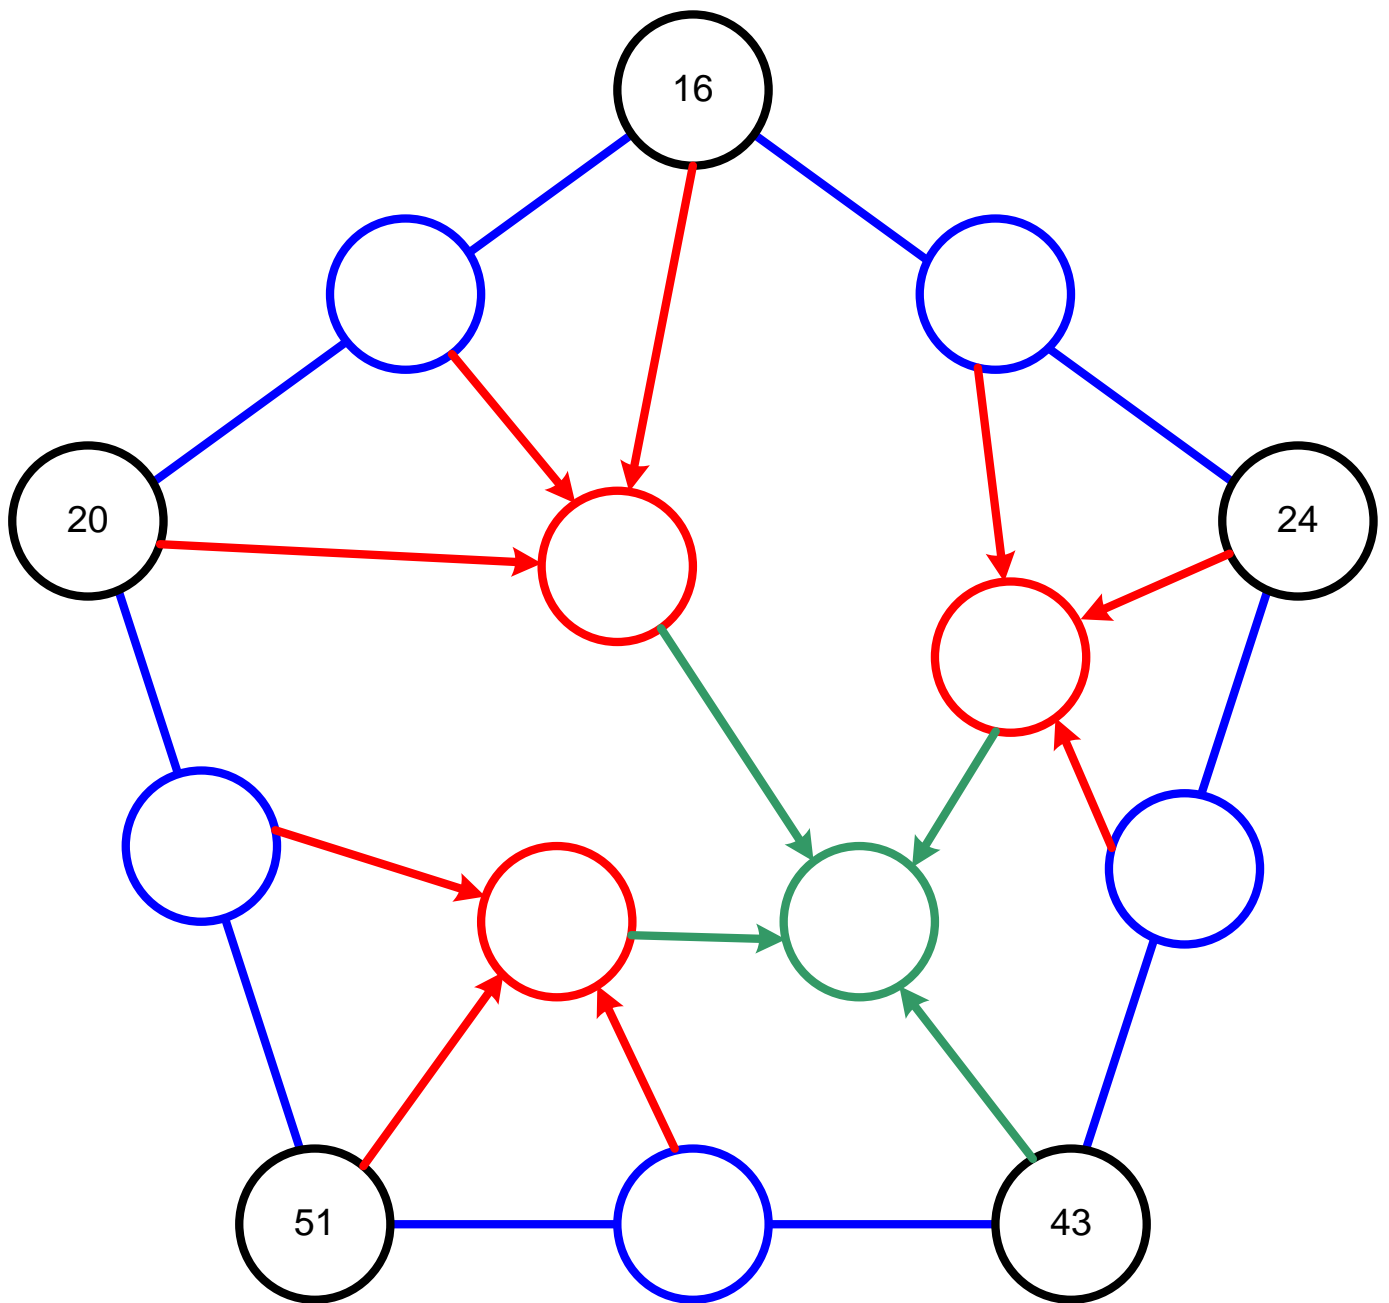

Find the difference between the two numbers in the black circles and write that down in the blue circle.

Add up the blue and black circles that are connected with the red lines and write that down in the red circle.

Add the red and black circles that are connected by the green lines and write that down in the green circle.

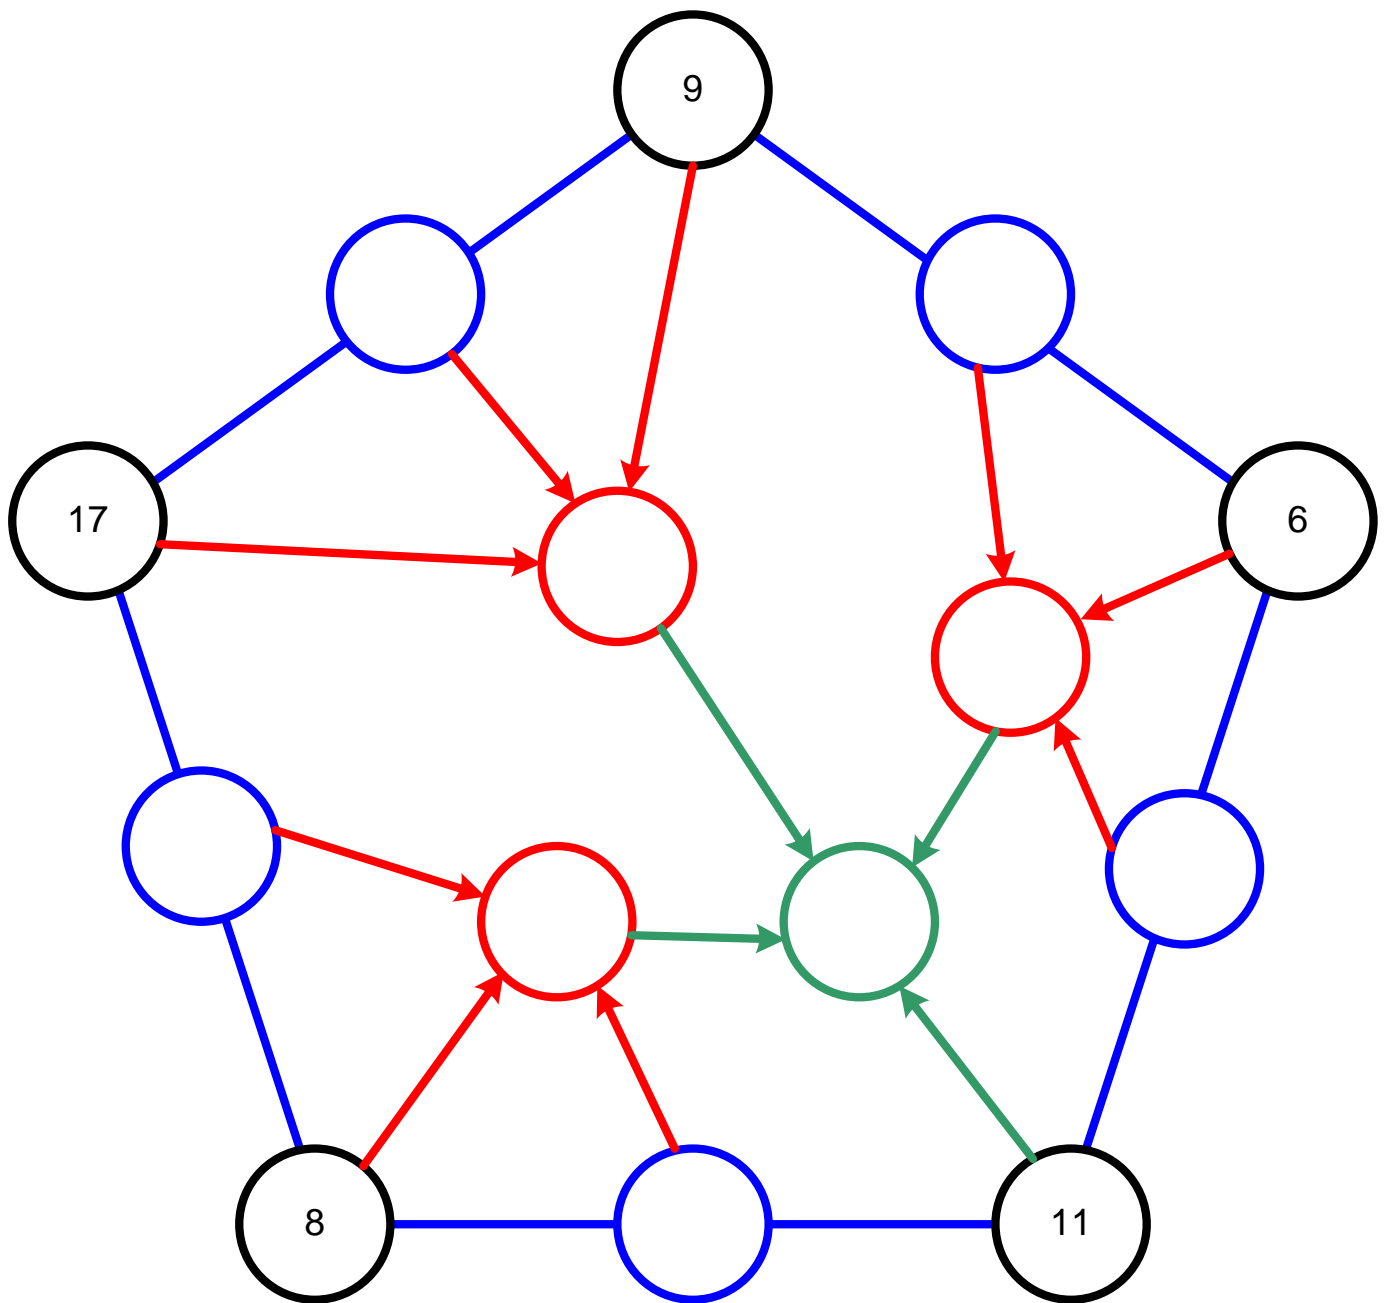

Find the difference between the two numbers in the black circles and write that down in the blue circle.

Add up the blue and black circles that are connected with the red lines and write that down in the red circle.

Add the red and black circles that are connected by the green lines and write that down in the green circle.

Find the difference between the two numbers in the black circles and write that down in the blue circle.

Add up the blue and black circles that are connected with the red lines and write that down in the red circle.

Add the red and black circles that are connected by the green lines and write that down in the green circle.